“ ISLAMABAD is the capital city of Pakistan and is located in the province of Punjab. Having mesmerizing scenic views from fertile soils to steep valleys, this city has never failed to provide me with peaceful and calm vibes. This centre point enables one to either travel north or south. Cascades, valleys, rivers and many more eye-catching views can be seen on the map with nearby places marked for a day tour from Islamabad. Hence, I welcome you all to this city with captivating views which would dwell in your hearts forever!
